A STORY A business man was exploring his faith and wanted to grow stronger. He had made a commitment to follow Jesus as his savior and Lord but found himself struggling with life decisions. His boss at work was demanding more of his time which was costing his family and other relationships. It especially impacted his time with the Lord. He found himself valuing sports and money. His career was competing for his time. This was having a negative impact on his faith. He was encouraged to remember that God wants to be first in his life.
