
B. DEVELOPING CONVICTIONS

What has been your experience in laying your life down for someone else? How costly was it?

B.5: Laying down my life [Luke 9:23 & Romans 5:8]

A STORY

Steve was a student at San Diego state University. He was not a Christian. He heard the good news of the Gospel of Christ. He was so excited about the change in his life in knowing Christ, he devoured the Bible and began to grow deeper in his relationship with Jesus. He came to hear Jesus say in Matthew...” Follow me and I will make you a fisher of men.” Steve took this so deeply to heart he wanted to see God give him men who would come to Christ. He eventually prepared himself to go overseas to reach men in the Philippines for Christ. He followed, and Jesus made him a “FISHER OF MEN.” Filipino men trusted Christ. What is the commitment Jesus is asking of his disciples?

When Jesus came into this world, he knew that he was going to lay his life down for us. This is represented in Philippians 2:5-10. When Jesus called his disciples to follow him, he explained the cost of following him. He never promised an easy road.

DIGGING INTO THE BIBLE

Let’s look at his model in Romans 5:8:

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.
